*In spite of style as jazz like,
In August, to be quite,
She isn't so young wearing a string,
For Broadway's her first Party!*

*The girl in gloves has many loves,
She's the perfect New Year's baby:
To every man in the month of Jan.,
She never says no, just maybe!*

ONE

AT SECOND SIGHT

John just called up to let me know
That one night all that just went down
Through his little mind and his little heart
The way that we had "loved" and
He said it's just like the New York
even though the first was not a romance
The other night when we were at the "Club"
He called my name and asked about me (1978)

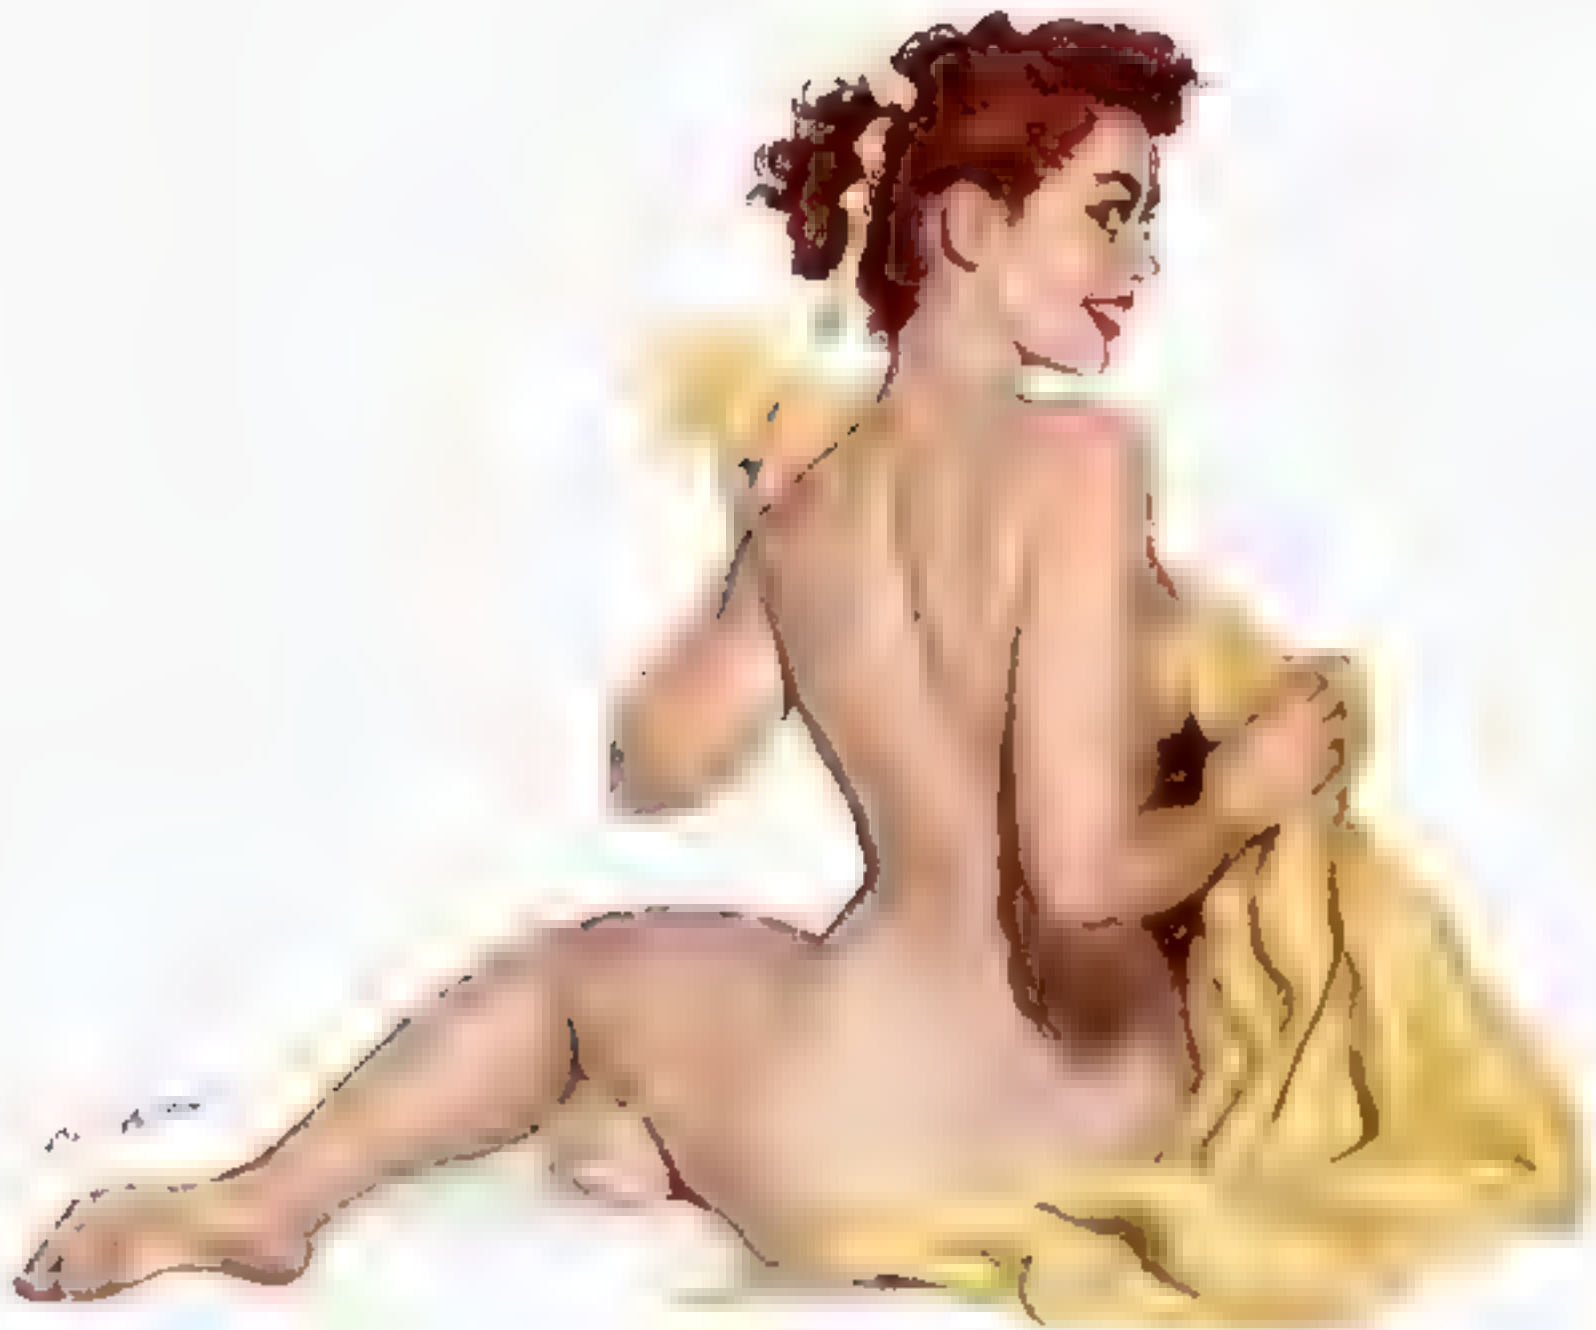

What's that you say - for me to hold me tight?
Spunk, honey - You remember me - Oh
Oh, yes - You're sure that I would love it right?
N/A, N/A - I MUSE (how interesting, my friend)
No, I'll go "MAY" - (to speak, doesn't show it)
MY GUY! I'm sorry, you just didn't know it!

THE EMERALD GIRL

PAIR NO. 57 BY AL MOORE

Rumba Number

(Sing with thick rumba accent)

I've loved and danced in Rio,
On seas and the west,
But of all the girls I ever see,
This girl she rumbas best.

She lives up near the Amazon
Oh, here's a steady stream
Every Pedro, Dick and Chino
Has heard about my dream.

Although she's South American
Like Aunuchas and the Cape,
My girl she's got what Latins call
The universal shape.

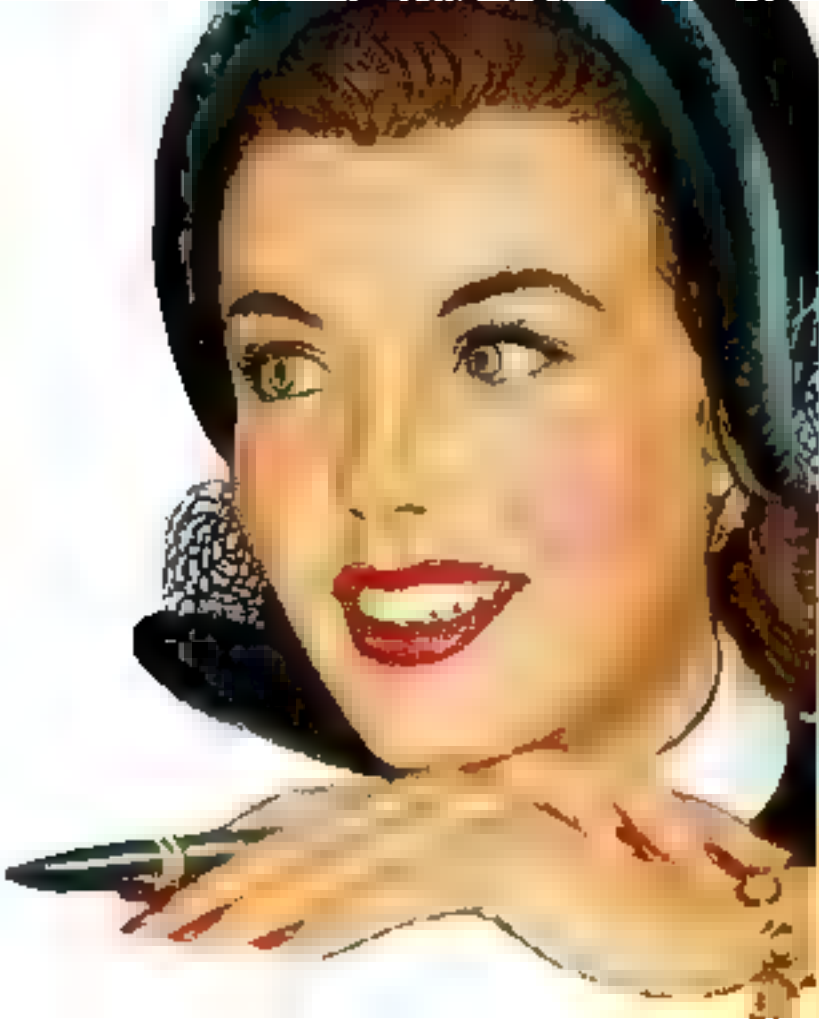

Her name is Esmeralda,
The goal I'm moving towards,
What some take fifty page to say,
She says with just the gourds.

March 1951

*Forget about taxes, political axes.
Escape with the gal in the corner-e.
Go skiing or hiking and you'll take a liking
To the idea of March, it seems.*
